ANNEXURE-I

Articles of Charge framed against Shri Bandila Jagannadha Rao, the then ADM&G, Dachepalli, Andhra Pradesh

Whereas, it is alleged that Shri B. Jaganadha Rao while working ADM&G, Dachepalli, Andhra Pradesh in the capacity of a public servant committed gross misconduct in as much as to:

i. maintain absolute integrity & devotion to duty;
ii. maintain political neutrality;
iii. promote the principles of merit, fairness and impartiality in the discharge of duties;
iv. take decisions solely in public interest and use or cause to use public resources efficiently, effectively and economically;
v. maintain discipline in the discharge of his duties and be liable to implement the lawful orders duly communicated to him;
vi. Perform and discharge his duties with the highest degree of professionalism and dedication to the best of his abilities.

That, Shri B.Jaganadha Rao, during the period from August 2015 to August 2018, while posted and working as the then ADM&G, Dachepalli misused his official position. During this period he deliberately did not take any action to stop/control the large scale illegal quarrying of limestone in Konanki (V) of Piduguralla (M) and Nadikudi and Kesanupalli villages of Dachepalli (M), Guntur.

That, Shri B.Jagannadha Rao, the then ADM&G, Dachepalli received several complaints for the said illegal quarrying of limestone in Government Land & Patta land from the aggrieved persons. Instead of taking stringent action against the persons responsible for illegal quarrying, he simply tried to shift the responsibility on lease and patta land holders.

That, Shri B.Jagannadha Rao, the then ADM&G, Dachepalli received survey report for illegal quarrying at Nadikudi village. He did not take action on the quantity to the tune of 2115825.14 MTs found illegally quarried in survey No.709 to 718 and 66/2B of Nadikudi village.

That, Shri B. Jagannadha Rao, the then ADM&G, Dachepalli, in compliance of the Collector's proceedings, he being a member of division level team, prepared false inspection reports mentioning that illegal quarrying is done at night hours; it has been stopped now and other teams have been directed to keep close watch on illegal quarrying. He did not conduct and ensure regular inspection to stop illegal quarrying of limestone.

That, Shri B. Jagannadha Rao, the then ADM&G, Dachepalli dishonestly did not comply the orders dated.28.03.2016 of Hon'ble High Court of Hyderabad in PIL No.228/2015 to assess the loss caused to the public exchequer through illegal mining / quarrying and see that liability can be fixed and loss of royalty with penalty, if any is recovered from persons, who indulged in the alleged illegal mining.

That, Shri B.Jagannadha Rao, the then ADM&G, Dachepalli prepared false Mediatornamas for identifying persons responsible for illegal quarrying at Konanki, Nadikudi and Kesanupalli; he did not include the names of main persons involved and managing the operation of whole illegal quarrying of limestone.

That, the above acts and omissions on the part of Shri B. Jagannadha Rao, the then ADM&G, Dachepalli resulted in illegal excavation of limestone from Konanki, Nadikudi and Kesanupalli villages under his jurisdiction. It has caused wrongful loss of Rs.124,46,41,278 to the Govt. exchequer towards seigniorage fee (Rs.50/- per MT) and loss of market value (Rs.250/- per MT).

By the aforesaid acts of Shri B. Jagannadha Rao, the then ADM&G, Dachepalli as public servant has failed to maintain absolute integrity, devotion to duty, politically neutralized and acted in a manner unbecoming a Public Servant and hence committed gross misconduct. Therefore he is liable to be penalized as per provisions of Rule 9 clause VI to X Andhra Pradesh Civil Services (Classification Control and Appeal) Rules, 1991.
